Acting Headteacher's message

Dear parents, staff and governors,

Well done to Year 6 who were great ambassadors for our school this week at the Preston City games at UCLAN.

It is lovely to hear what a credit they were to you as parents and to our school.

Our Book Fair is in school until next Tuesday. There are a fantastic selection of books on offer at very reasonable prices. Please come along if you can. If you have already visited and bought one of the lovely books thank you for your support.

Have a lovely weekend,

Lindsey Walsh

Acting Headteacher

Reception class will be taking part in 'Bikeability' with balance bikes, this will take place on Monday 27th November through to Wednesday 29th November. Letters have been sent home.

On Tuesday 28th November, there will be a Maths session for parents' of reception children. It will take place in reception class straight after school and will provide guidance on how to support your child in maths.
